

Ebba Pilo Karth steps down as CFO of John Mattson

Ebba Pilo Karth, CFO of John Mattson Fastighetsföretagen AB (publ) and a member of the company's executive management team, has announced that she will resign from her position at her own request.

During a transition period, Ebba Pilo Karth will focus on ensuring a proper handover. The recruitment of a successor will commence immediately.

- I would like to thank Ebba for her valuable contributions during her time at John Mattson, where she has played a significant role in establishing structure in a growing company. Ebba has been a highly appreciated colleague, and I wish her all the best in the future, says Per Nilsson, CEO of John Mattson.

John Mattson has appointed Lars Ingman as interim CFO. He previously served as interim CFO at John Mattson and has experience from several other listed companies. Lars Ingman assumes the position with immediate effect and will remain in the role until a successor has been recruited.
